Self-Initiated

Federal Highways Administration and Federal Transit Administration | SA2018069 |
August 15, 2018

What We Looked At

We reviewed the Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority's single audit report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2016, in order to identify findings that affect directly awarded Department of Transportation programs. An independent auditor prepared the single audit report, dated April 6, 2018.

What We Found

We found that the report contained subrecipient monitoring requirements, special tests and provisions requirements, and matching requirements findings that need prompt action from the Federal Highways Administration's (FHWA) management and the Federal Transit Administration's (FTA) management.

Recommendations

We recommend that FTA ensures that the Authority complies with the subrecipient monitoring requirements. We recommend that FHWA ensures that the Authority complies with the special tests and provisions requirements and the matching requirements.

The Office of the Inspector General performs oversight of non-Federal auditors' single audit<sup>1</sup> reports and issues memoranda listing significant findings and recommendations requiring action by the Department of Transportation (DOT). When warranted, we also recommend that agencies recover funds that were inappropriately expended by non-Federal entities. Between 300 and 400 single audits reports are issued annually that include findings related to major programs directly funded by DOT.

We obtained the Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority's single audit report for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2016, from the Federal Audit Clearinghouse's Image Management System.<sup>2</sup> An independent auditor performed the audit in accordance with generally accepted Government auditing standards and the Office of Management and Budget's Uniform Guidance<sup>3</sup> and issued a
